Fell down to their knees
I got no pity in my heart 'cause their hearts are filled with greed
Oh no it's too late to fall now
Fell down to their knees
Got no voices to be heard by cries they'd never hear
Got no roots seeded in our hearts tonight

Alas they'll know how we longed
Down they go where they belong

Fell down to their knees
I got no pity in my heart 'cause their hearts are filled
with greed
Oh no it's too late to crawl
Fell down to their knees
I got no mercy for the merciless; their hearts are filled
with greed
Oh no it's a long way down

They're dying and they're begging for a hand still red from
A life, a love they had taken Still lying in my arms you gave me hope to fight for Tonight, I will fight for you

Got a dagger in my heart but my heart's still beating A stiletto that reminds me I've got something to live for A dagger's in my heart but my heart's still bleeding
I'll never fall
