The villains are coming but witches are in season
Top of the morning to all of the villains who come
The hypocrites always incite you with a reason
Top of the morning to all of the villains who come

The henchmen are coming to stand up to the treason
Top of the morning to all of the henchmen who come
A blind eye is turned 'til the witches are no longer
breathing
Top of the morning to all the henchmen who come

No way to forget
No reasons to forgive and forget
No, no way I'll leave them to live

Burned our way through the seasons past
And held a loaded gun but got away
A loaded gun still quick at hand today
The beginning of a new hunt sounds and I drift away;
so hard to stay
As I walk away I heard them say
As we fight, we unite

The villains are coming but witches are in season
Top of the morning to all of the villains who come
A blind eye is turned 'til the witches are no longer
breathing
Top of the morning to all of the villains who come
