right - left that big fuckin bomb made me deaf, deaf a home beam(?) mechanic with his kevlar .. on wrong ...with a suicide bomb and hell broke luce hell broke luce

dig fuckin ditches in the middle of the road you'd pay a hundred dollars just for filling in the hole listen to the general every goddamn word how many ways can you polish up a turn(?) and left - right left - left - right hell broke luce, hell broke luce
hell broke luce

...
...the only ones responsible for making this mess
...goddamn desk
and hell broke luce, hell broke luce

...looking for the war was a chef, I was a chef what was the name it was Jeff, Jeff I lost a buddy in Iraq, raq I come down from the meth so I slept, slept I had to get home but I left, left can't stick the wind for a joke i benched right in with a goat(??) glanced at her shins she said nope

...hasn't any wool get me another bodybag but the bodybag's full my face was scars, scars i miss my home i miss my porch, porch
give up all hope and march, march life stands...

and ransacked dinner with the pope
..got his sons... sergio's developping a real bad cough
and hell broke luce, hell broke luce

boom went his heavy weight and boom went bowery(?) what the hell was it that the president said? give them all a beautiful parade instead

...
I left my arm in my coat my mum she died ... road and set by the fire in her coat just before he died he had a coke now I'm home and I'm blind and I'm broke what is next?
