I like my town with a little drop of poison
Nobody knows they're lining up to go insane
I'm all alone, I smoke my friends down to the filter
But I feel much cleaner after it rains

And she left in the fall, that's her picture on the wall,
She always had that little drop of poison.

Did the devil make the world while god was sleeping
You'll never get a wish from a bone.
Another wrong good-bye and a hundred sailors
That deep blue sky is my home.

And she left in the fall, that's her picture on the wall,
She always had that little drop of poison.

Well, a rat always knows when he's in with weasels
Here you lose a little every day.
Well, I remember when a million was a million
They all have ways to make you pay.

And she left in the fall, that's her picture on the wall,
She always had that little drop of poison.
And she left in the fall, that's her picture on the wall,
She always had that little drop of poison.
