"You And Me"

I see couples walking in the hall hugging, kissing, loving and all I had a dream that was you and me I thought it would happen, eventually and in my dream I was holding you I said I love you and you said it too
We walked together everywhere
I touched you softly while caressing your hair You put your head on my shoulder to rest the thing my shoulder is used for best In my dream I made everything just right to suit your gentle body all through the night Nothing could go wrong in my dream but then I woke up, and I just wanna scream After that I could not sleep
I tried everything, even counting sheep But all I could do was think of you and of all the things that I could not do Because in reality like today you'll never let me treat you in that way I wished that I could but it won't come true I could never admit that I love you And I think of this all through the night only in my dreams could I hold you tight But one day it all came true the dream I had of me and you I couldn't think of anything but how much I love you
