Now every time I see you
You touch the love so deep inside
That's all I want to tell you
Now that I found you
Don't take your love from me

There's something new and you won't feel dark inside
I must believe all the feeling
That I just can't hide
It's just the way you hold and touch my soul
And when we kiss I just go out of control
Now every time I see you
You touch the love so deep inside
That's all I want to tell you
Now that I found you
Don't take your love away

Don't take your love from me (2x)

I was lost, baby now I'm found
I met you and you turned my life around
You showed me all the things that love can do
My life's complete since the day I met you
Now every time I see you
You touch the love so deep inside
That's all I want to tell you
Now that I found you
Don't take your love away

So, don't take your love from me
Can't you see I need your love
I found your love

Believe me now
I know this love is true
I was sure the moment that I looked at you
I want you by my side
Please say you'll stay
Share the love we found in a special way
Now every time I see you
You touch the love so deep inside

That's all I want to tell you
Now that I found you
Don't take your love away

You know I need you
I've got to have you
Don't take your love away from me (3x)
