floating by Karmadelaluna
You're in space , there's lights , there's colors
You do not know your name You're concious , but you do not know your name or who you are
You're just floating
And you don't know .. whatever
You're just bzzzzzz
And it's really fantastic

And you're just floating
Way up in the sky
All is quiet now
And when you see the earth below you
Moving real slow
You see the stars above your head
And you just know
This is it
