A night like this kept you wishing
For a night like this again
So I'll take your hand
And set you falling into the air
And oh, love

Take this night and all it's stars well
Could it be anyone else with you?
No, no, no, take this time now
And all this charm well
Could it be anyone else here?

Oh, someone tripped you up
And sent you reeling, right into me
So come along now
Let me see what I've got here for you, oh
And oh, love

Take this night and all it's stars well
Could it be anyone else with you?
No, no, no, take this time now
And all it's charm well
Could it be anyone else?

It's alright
So close your eyes and hold tight

'Cause a night like this kept you wishing
For a night like this again

Take this night and all it's stars well
Could it be anyone else with you?
No, no, no, take this time now
And all it's charm well
Could it be anyone else
With you here right now ya?

Take this night and all it's stars well
Could it be anyone else with you?
No, no, no, take this time now
And all it's charm well
Could it be anyone else?
