"Get By"

I confess to you today
I've given up, I lost my way
If I could change all I can see,
My body would rest and my mind would be free

A hurricane of truth and lies,
The oval vision was in my mind
All these troubles I try to hide
Dig a little deeper, cause it's buried inside

Oh you try to get by, to get by, to get by
And you try to get by, to get by, to get by
And you try to get by, to get by, to get by
To get by

The time is here, so we're all far
I won't forget, I've seen it all
Cause I go through your first attack
You'll be looking for me because I'm not coming back.

Oh you try to get by, to get by, to get by
And you try to get by, to get by, to get by
And you try to get by, to get by, to get by
To get by
To get by
To get by
To get by

Oh you try to get by, to get by, to get by
And you try to get by, to get by, to get by
And you try to get by, to get by, to get by
To get by
To get by
To get by
To get by...
