I believe in a one man army,
And I know it's a war I started yeah, oh yeah.
On a whim I am clear and stable,
And in my heart I'm able yeah, oh yeah.

Just move yourself, don't go back, don't stand against the wall!

Just move yourself, and feel it,
feel good for who you are, ah yeah, ah yeah!

Just move yourself, don't go back, don't stand against
the wall!

Just move yourself, and feel it,
feel good for who you are, ah yeah, ah yeah!

The world of the broken hearted,
A world where the people parted, yes, oh yeah.
This one's for the people lending,
A problem which has no ending, yeah!
Oh yeah.

Just move yourself, don't go back, don't stand against
the wall!

Just move yourself, and feel it,
feel good for who you are, ah yeah, ah yeah!

No one's going to say that this is right when this is wrong.

No one's going to say that this is right when this is wrong.

(No one's going to say that this is right when this is wrong)

Just move yourself, don't go back, don't stand against
the wall!

Just move yourself, and feel it,
feel good for who you are, ah yeah, ah yeah!

I believe in a one man army,
And I know it's a war I started yeah, oh yeah.
