As long as the earth is turning as long as the fire's burning for the beauty that I'm yearning I won't hide as long as the years are going as long as your mind is flowin' as I'm standing talking I won't hide As long as the time is runnin' and there is birth and dying the quests I find I search As long as the sun is shinin' as long as the birds are flying as a war continues I won't hide as long as your god won't clear out as long for him you doubt as I don't believe you I won't hide
