I have come to tell you of my love for you Ann With a small diamond ring for the finger of your left hand
Are you smilin' are you cryin' no you're laughin' be serious Ann if you can one time My heart is a pound and it took all my nerve to come here
This is my first time to love anyone so dear What's funny am I a clown which you're laughin' be serious Ann if you can one time [ ac.guitar ]
There's not any need for you to joke quite so much Ann You've no right to do this to torture a regual man Stop your laughin' please Ann I don't like it be serious Ann if you can one time You're laughin' at me again and I can't stand it Ann You've mocked me and ruined me and now you're a dye at my hand I love you which you laugh at me and I warn you be serious Ann be serious one time
