Well back in the country a few years ago
There was sure a lot about the girls I don't know
I wondered how to steal a kiss but I was so shy
I wondered a million times every time I'd try What am I gonna do now well I don't know how
And the girls started asking whatcha gonna do now
Well I was gettin' sweet on the neighbor's daughter Lou
She was cute and sassy and kinda bold too
She told me she'd show me what it's all about
She was gonna teach me how to knock 'em out Holding hands and making eyes I learned in lesson one
Lou was my teacher and school sure was fun
How to put my arms around came in lesson two
She said now you're ready to learn somethin' new Whatcha gonna do now you gotta show me how Oh don't keep me waitin' whatcha gonna do now [guitar]
I took her to the cake walk at the country school
She was hangin' on to me and she wouldn't turn me loose
Girls started making eyes I guess it made Lou sore
She took me to the moonlight said I gotta teach you more Whatcha gonna do now oh how you do know how whatcha gonna do now
Kisses by the dozen hugs to beat the ban
I yelled and I pleaded I'm just one little man Lou was sure excited need I tell you more
And then I saw a gleam that I never saw before Whatcha gonna do now oh how you do know how
whatcha gonna do now
