YOU

Tommy Dorsey

My darling, I'm lonely, now that you're gone.

Please come back to me.

You are the answer to my prayer, I want to love you

And I swear to live my life with one desire, you.

I believed the sweet things that you said.

You lied to me and instead,

You broke my heart. You, yes, you.

My darling, come back and stay with me. I live just for you.

We'll be so happy together. Please come back to me.

It isn't right, You'll never know. I am so sad.

Why did you go? You broke my heart. You, yes, you
