IT'S ALWAYS YOU
Tommy Dorsey

Whenever it's early twilight
I watch till a star breaks through.
Funny it's not a star I see,
It's always you.

Whenever I roam through roses,
And lately I often do,
Funny it's not a rose I touch,
It's always you

If a breeze caresses me,
It's really you strolling by,
If I hear a melody,
It's merely the way you sight

Wherever you are, you're near me,
You dare me to be untrue,
Funny, each time I fall in love
It's always you
