The Most Beautiful Girl In the World
Frank Sinatra
Written by Richard Rodgers and Lorenz Hart

This version not released as a single but
In 1952 it became Ted Straeter's theme song as he hit 27.

In 1953 Tommy Dorsey put it at # 21
From the Broadway musical "Jumbo"

The most beautiful girl in the world
Picks my ties out
She eats my candy
She drinks my brandy
The most beautiful girl in the world

The most beautiful star in the world
't isn't Garbo
Isn't Dietrich
But a sweet trick
Who can make me believe it's a beautiful world

Social ? Not a bit
Natural kind of wit
She'd shine anywhere
And she hasn't got platinum hair

The most beautiful house in the world
Has a mortgage
What do I care ?
It's "Good-bye, care"
When my slippers are next to the ones that belong
To the one and only beautiful girl in the world

Social ? Not a bit
She's got a natural kind of wit.
And I tell ya, she'd shine anywhere
And she hasn't got platinum hair

The most beautiful house in the world
It has a mortgage

What do I care ?
It's "Good-bye, care"
When my slippers are next to the ones that belong
To the one and only beautiful girl
The one and only beautiful girl
The one and only beautiful girl in the world
