Sit around til sunset
Bragging about boredom
Nothing to do in this quiet small town
Nothing is going down
I feel my life
Being sucked below
I feel my feelings
Leaking oh so slow

The future won't wait so live your life now
The future won't wait so live your life now
The times will change and they won't slow down
So all you can do is live your life right now

Mirrors and mnemonics
They all wanna talk it
Damn I wish I was that cool
Wish I was a brainless fool
I feel my mind
I know I'm better
I got my eyes
I'm feeling better

The future won't wait so live your life now
The future won't wait so live your life now
The times will change and they won't slow down
So all you can do is live your life right now

The clock don't stop to wait
Time just goes on and on
There's not a second to waste
So live your life on and on and on and on and on

The future won't wait so live your life now
The future won't wait so live your life now
The times will change and they won't slow down
So all you can do is live your life right now
The future won't wait so live your life now
The future won't wait so live your life now
The times will change and they won't slow down
So all you can do is live your life right now
