I break down
I break down
I break down, I

I try to go on, I try to be strong
I try to be the one to stand tall
I try to impress you, try to make you think
Nothing can hurt me, I can take it all

When the sky turns gray and the clouds bring thunder
I hold up a shelter for you to hide under
When the rain begins to fall
And my shelter hits the ground then I'm the one

I break down
I break down

They say in this world to make it
You've got to be strong
Day after day gets harder to hold on
But sometimes I get sad
And my smiles turn to frowns, then it's my turn

To break down
I break down

When you reach out and cry to me
I hold on internally
But sometimes I get sad
And my smiles turn to frowns, then I'm the one

When the sky turns gray, clouds bring thunder
I hold up a shelter for you to hide under
For you to hide under

I break down
(I break down)
(I break down)
I break down
(I break down)
Now I'm the one

I break down
I break down
I break down

When the sky turns gray, clouds bring thunder
I hold up a shelter for you to hide under
For you to hide under

I break down
I break down
I break down, I

I break down
I break down
I break
