I caught you looking at me as I was looking at you
It was so easy to see what I was going to do Too late to turn back now, I'm gonna get to you somehow

I'm making my move, moving closer to you
I'm making my move, this time I follow through
I said to myself that I've got to prove
I'm not afraid of making my move

I feel your heart and it's beating just as fast as mine
We know it won't be long, it's just a matter of time Some things were meant to be and your love is motivating me

Something inside of me, something subconsciously Passion is taking me somehow it's making me move in closer to you

I'm making my move, moving closer to you
Making my move, this time I follow through
I said to myself that I've got to prove
I'm not afraid of making my move

Something inside of me, something subconsciously
Passion is taking me somehow it's making me move in
closer to you

I'm making my move, moving closer to you
Making my move, this time I follow through
I said to myself that I've got to prove
I'm not afraid of making my move

Making my move, moving closer to you
Making my move, this time I follow through
I said to myself that I've got to prove
I'm not afraid of making my move

Something inside of me, something subconsciously
Passion is taking me somehow it's making me move in
closer to you
I'm not afraid of making my move

Something inside of me, something subconsciously
Passion is taking me somehow it's making me move in
closer to you
I'm not afraid of making my move

Something inside of me, something subconsciously
Passion is taking me somehow it's making me move in
closer to you
I'm not afraid of making my move
