VERSE 1

Silly girl
Do you know who you're talking to Because like all other men
I break hearts for a living
Yes I do
And in half an hours' time,
You'll be the last thing on my mind
But that won't be the same for you

Silly girl
You seem really smart
So don't take everything that I say tonight
To heart
And if you'd come down from outta space
You'd see I'm in some other guy's place
Life doesn't have to be so hard

BRIDGE:

There's only so much that I can hint
And if one word replies don't do the trick
Then silly girl, I don't mean to be rude
But I'm sorry if I lead you on
I apologise if I did you wrong
But silly girl, I hope you find what you're looking for
I hope you find what you're looking for

VERSE 3:

Silly girl
Don't say I didn't warn you
So don't settle for anything or anyone
Who doesn't adore you
There may be tears for days
But it will be worth the wait
Cause there's someone who needs someone too
Cause there's a silly boy for a silly girl like you
