Belonged to me
And him, and him, and she
World whore three
That's what she was born to be
Making headlines in history
But in the end, it had to end
But she was worth every cent
I fighting for piece but ended up in pieces
And if you're looking to start a war
Look on the streets of your local store
But you probably been up there before
I packed my heart, when I packed my sniper
I thought I loved her, turns out that I didn't even like her

World whore three
What have you done to me
Ohâ€¦
World whore three
What have you done to me
Ohâ€¦

World whore three
Is all the women who were never meant to be
Lovers to enemies (Lovers to enemies)
World whore three
Don't go running for sympathy
Don't you know that you're dead to me?

Some say love is a gamble
Too many coins for the slots to handle
The final call before the war is over
Jackpot
Cha-ching cha-ching
Jackpot
The slut machine
Jackpot
I won, but I didn't win anything
