I'm ready Sounds nice like this Swing Low Hey Hey Yo Yo [CHORUS x2] Swing Low Sweet chariot Comin' to carry me home Carry me home Carry me home [VERSE 1] Some suggest M.anifest could do better But they all know I'm fly like a feather In stormy weather I don't fuck with rats or mice Cuz they eyein' my cheese and my cheddar Early one day I received a letter Written by Winnie and signed by Mandela Like E. badu They said I was clever I no be Gentleman My tribute to Fela It's a new era for soulful endeavor Planes fallin' from the sky couldn't give me terror Earthquakes? whenever Al-Qaeda? whatever Fear nobody but God forever and ever If I die when I go to America Make sure bring my bones back to Africa Made in Ghana Be laid in Ghana Rest my soul right next to my Grandpa [CHORUS] [VERSE 2] I've grown leaps and bounds Developed a new sound Fully representing Ghana Now I'm toast of the town The street's talkin' Ask who the best around They say M.anifest Yup, he wears the crown, ha As a youngster, I was so profound Not death nor gravity could hold me down So when I'm gone Don't mourn or let your eyes be misty Regards to the girls that ever loved and kissed me I know that my homies gon miss me Senam, mawuli, Kamal, Fataw, all yall that were with me Console yourself, cause at least I got busy Held the microphone and then I got dizzy And Traveled the world really, from Accra to Philly And never looked that silly like Milli Vanilli And Express my rages from the pages to the stages When I'm gone yall should play this Yeah, but I'm livin' a long-ass time I'm livin' past 80 for sure I'm gonna remix this in when I'm 90 or somethin That would be real dope CHORUS [Spoken interlude]
