I'll send a storm
to capture your heart
and bring you home
Ooh carry on the breeze
you'll never find me, gone Oh faster than the post train burning like a slow flame on
I'll send a storm
to capture your heart
and bring you home

Even though the landscape stretches like a hard day Even though the old man says I have a fool's plan Oh despite the distance you will see my footprints I will raise my flagpole
I will turn these tables 'round

I'll send a storm
to capture your heart
and bring you home
Ooh carry on the breeze
you'll never find me, gone
Oh faster than the post train
burning like a slow flame on
I'll send a storm
to capture your heart
and bring you home

Though I've said the worse things and I can't reverse this Secrets of the floor lay gambled of the doorway

Oh I've made the mistakes and I have learnt the hard way Even though you leave me crying like a banshee

to capture your heart
and bring you home
Ooh carry on the breeze
to capture your heart
and bring you home
