Take a look to the hall
Don't be angry you can't fall
It's an imagined room up there
Can't you smell this atmosphere?

If I look to the right I see an angel
With its wings wide open

If I look to the left I see the devil
With red eyes

Baby I can't really understand
But it's over
But it's over

There is one advice for you
Don't try to fly with broken wings

Refrain:
You can fly wherever you want
You can fly whenever you want
You can fly with everyone you want

But I can't fly with broken wings

If I take a look into these red eyes
I think everything you said it has been lies.

I start up to pray
Come back angel
Come back angel
Come back to me

And I start up the fight
Turn my head to the right
Loosing your atmosphere right now
Have I lost this war let me know.

Tell me tell me tell me
Could you fly with broken wings
I can't
I can't

Ref.: You can't ...

I have to realize your wings are not broken...!
