The doctor looked at me and said
"I'll operate"
The hurt was so intense
I thought I'd suffocate
I asked if they had a heart
He said, "I've just found a donor"

The surgeon started and my heaving chest was cut in two
The calcified main vein was worse; it split in two
The doctor shouts out, "It's revascularization"

And now the specialist says I need the ICU
See I'm haemorrhaging my desperate need for you
'Cause your love is like a heart bypass operation

I need the surgeon to keep
Deep freezing
Deep, deep freezing blood
I'm need, needing
Need, need, needing my mum
I'm seep, seeping
Seep, seep, seeping blood

These sheets are soaking in brine

This love is like DVT
And clogged-up arteries
I had coronary surgery
And now I'm on a machine and

Beep, beeping
Beep, beep, beeps and hums
I'm see-seizing
They just try kneading my bumps (?)
I'm sleep, sleeping
Feel I'm fading fast
How long will this (????) laaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa...
Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa...
Laaaaaaaaaaaaasst...
