I try to write songs that are interesting
I want ???? and trendies to say I'm refreshing
I bought some quirky boots and got rock chick hair
But I'm just like all the other Indie girls out there

We all look just the sa-eh-uh-i-

They call me White Stripes
They call me Gold Frapp
They call me Robin
They call me Peaches

We look the same!
We look the same!
We look the same!
We look the same!

We're cool and moody and on the scene
We had a great review in NME
We make lonely male music writers gooey and soppy
So they don't notice that we're ripping off Blondie

Our songs all sound the sa-eh-uh-i-

You call me Debbie
You call me Pixie
You call me Aggie
We think we're quirky

We're all the same
We look the same
We sound the same
We're all the same!
