Something inside is telling me
That I should forget everything
Rush up to you, see if you see anything in me

To think that I look like a guy
Who's worthing of some of your time
See I dont think, down the line
I'll ask you for a drink

But it happens confidence builds up
You think that you should just rush up and see me
See if she replies
But inexplicably
Cause youre about to leave
That confidence dies

See I don't like coffee at all
But I drink some for you
I wanna have a drink with you
So I'll go anywhere you want me to

And then one day everything changed
I finally didn't back away
I went over, said my name
And she responded well

I stuttered slightly which was lightly
Fidgeted and looked down shyly
But to my, sheer surprise
She said a drink'd be swell

So she suggested coffee down the road in ashton lane
Before I knew it I was saying
Yeah I said that sounded great
In the heat of the moment as they say
Words pop out when they wouldn't normally

See, I dont like coffee at all
But I drink some for you
See I wanna have a drink with you
So I'll go anywhere you want me to

So she suggested coffee down the road in ashton lane
Before I knew it I was saying
Yeah I said that sounded great
In the heat of the moment as they say
Words pop out when they wouldn't normally

see I don't like coffee at all
but I drink some for you
see I wanna have a drink with you
so I'll go anywhere you want me to

I don't like coffee at all
But I drink some for you
See I wanna have a drink with you
So I'll go anywhere you want me to

I don't like coffee at all
But yeah I know you do
See I wanna have a drink with you
So I'll go anywhere you want me to

I don't like coffee at all
But yeah I know you do
See I wanna have a drink with you
So I'll go anywhere you want me to
