Kick the covers this way
You've been lying on your phone
Yet lying next to someone
Doesn't mean your not alone

So give in just a little
We'll bend this but won't break
We'll call in sick tomorrow
So we can do this all again.

In little easy steps
Because we dont know what's for the best
In little easy steps
Because we don't know what's for the best

So if the beat waves just a little
We'll ake a little peek
Yeah maybe in a little
We won't have to sneak

So we'll get up just a little
But not the way it ends
But we're only moving litle its
In litte easy steps

In little easy steps
Because we dont know what's for the best
In little easy steps
Because we dont know what's for the best
In little easy steps
Because we dont know what's for the best
In little easy steps
Because we dont know what's for the best

Coz we're only moving little bits
Coz we don't know what's or the best
