You're on your way out the door,
I'm on my way in.
If that's how the cards are falling,
Then there's no way that I'm gonna win.
I (?) it was time I decided,
That I was going to call it a night.
I hung around in the wrong room,
Because I thought you were right.

But I'm not sure any more,
I'm not sure if I've shaken this yet.
Hell, I'm not sure any more,
I'm not sure if I'm going to shake it.

I think the trouble was resting,
It just laid low and did it well.
Tied every cell in my blood stream,
But staying quiet as hell.
It's well and truly perked up now,
Rejuvenated back with a fight.
I couldn't come back for you,
I already passed you and I said 'good night'.

Well I'm not sure any more,
I'm not sure if I've shaken this yet.
Hell, I'm not sure any more,
I'm not sure if I'm going to shake it.(x2)

You're on your way out the door,
I'm on my way in.
If that's how the cards are falling,
Then there's no way that I'm gonna win.
I'm gonna win.
