Why should you worry
you'll end up by ourself in the end and what's the hurry
you need someone to tell you who you are

get over yourself
you could be a star
if only for a minute we forget who we are
and what's the damage now

it seems beyond the past you've heard it all before throwing porcelaine down the stairs

we'll go to the health club
uh
we'll go to the health club

why should it matter to be a king with no one to be king of
and stop yourself from being someone that you wanna dive with

you heard it all before throwing porcelaine down the stairs
get over yourself

we'll go to the health club
uh (4x)

and your mind will go and your mind will come on and off a scene
if you won't believe then it won't be real it won't be real
real

uh

we'll go to the health club
uh (4X)
