Come on let's move it like the minors do we're just as oldie on the out but (?) that's me that's you falling into the arms of a stranger enjoying every possible danger the James and Judy (?)

keep falling over making up for boredom days

it's a miracle
the way you look at me
it's a miracle
the way you dance so free wake up to the sound of the drums we never thought that we were the ones let's quit our jobs and stick to it make a living just messin' around telling tales for the strange to another chasing waves in the sea of your bother she won't look so she can't see but it takes some magic just to believe

it's a miracle
it's a miracle
the way you dance so free

it's a miracle
the way you dance for me

we're all on the ??
in our fancy clothes
gazing at stars

on our bedroom walls

they dance to the beat because they are young and move so fast
they've just begun

it's a miracle (they dance to the beat)
it's a miracle (they move so fast)

the way you look at me (because they are young) it's a miracle (and move so fast) the way you dance for me (they've just begun)
