Hey!

What do you know about the song and the dance in your mind

That boy is looking at you and he says he knows your kind

I see you dancin' but you never ever mark your words
Hey! What do you know I think you've got to do this up again

Have you ever, felt so lonely
In this cold, world so cold
Have you ever, felt so lonely

She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
And she's always one step behind

She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
And she's always one step behind

Hey! You! I moved to the side.
Just-a live a little least of your life
That ex got a bullet aside and she likes what you did before
You see me dancin' but I never ever like to talk Hey! What do we know I think we've done it to ourselves again

Have you ever, felt so lonely
In this cold, world so cold
Have you ever, felt so lonely

She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
And she's always one step behind

She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'

She's got me dancin'
And she's always one step behind

Have you ever, felt so lonely
In this cold, world so cold
Have you ever, felt so lonely

She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
And she's always one step behind

She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
And she's always one step behind

She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
And she's always one step behind

She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
She's got me dancin'
And she's always one step behind
