Butterfly. . .

When I was at nine. . . a teacher of mine said who kills is cruel

Who makes war is a fool

And only peace is a tool

That's what I learned in school

So I kept livin' by the rule

Butterfly. . .

I'm over twenty now. . . livin' in plenty but I carry a gun

I'm in a war that ain't done

In a war that can't be won

At home is my lovin'one

Who now knows making war ain't fun

Butterfly fly. . . from this battlefield up to the sky

To my love one and tell her that I

Learned to kill now and I don't know why

Butterfly see. . . You must fly over oceans for me

Take my love to my love one on your satin wings my
