How many ways
Do we have to say goodbye?
How many days
Are we gonna need this time?

If only I could tell you
If only I could tell you anything

But I couldn't wait to miss you

How many things
Can you really want from someone?
How many ways
Could you really need someone?

And I couldn't wait to miss you
And I couldn't wait to miss you

Always feels predictable
I don't want to be predictable
Oh, so predictable now

How many ways
Are you gonna say my name?
How many days
Are you gonna stay the same?

And I couldn't wait to miss you
And I couldn't wait to miss you
And I couldn't wait to kiss you

Always feels inseparable
I don't want to be inseparable
Oh, so inseparable now
