When I see him, I feel him

There's an intenseness

In him, in his eyes

He wants me to be with him

He wants me with him now

She just seems to be missing

How could that happen anyhow?

So how can you say

Well, I don't know what love is

You haven't and you have no time for it

You feel completely indifferent

You feel pushed up against the wall

And then one day it just almost goes away

You spend lots of time alone

Sometimes you spend years

And you just miss those arms that used to go around you

Night after night,

No questions asked and

Who cares, the cold wind of it all, everytime

Well, it's hard to be civil and it's

Real hard to be nice

But you did it, my love, everytime

So how can you say, well, I can't see you

Not now, not tomorrow, not until it's right

Not until

None of us is pushed up against the wall

I don't know, the cold wind doesn't get you anymore

So today she says, "well, I've changed my mind"

That's a woman's right, they say

Well, I'm frightened and I'm lost and I

Can't give you up, not now, I need you now

I'm broken-hearted, broke down

Like a little girl

Well, I need you now, well, I'm broken hearted

Well, I broke down, like a little girl

(I need you now no questions asked)

Well I broke down like a little girl

(I need you now no questions asked)

I broke down like a little girl

(Need you now no questions asked)

I broke down like a little girl

Well like a little girl

(Need you now no questions asked)

Like a little girl
