Your trying to hard
To look so cool
But theres only so many girls you can fool
Your so full of yourself
It makes us all laugh
You took my whole heart
And gave me back half

You started smoking
Its really bad baby
Its only a matter of time before they say
That you're a fake
But it'll be good publicity when you break

So go to your parties
Have your L.A
But I'll make it to places you never could some day
Sunshine and starry nights
Celebrities and bitchy fights
I'm really the one that's too good for you

(Chorus)
You can say you knew me
You can say you loved me
You can say you thought you were above me
You can say you knew me
You can say you loved me
Woah, around and again..

You always wanted me to write a song about you
To bad it had to be like this
Do you miss me yet?
Or did you just forget?

Your trying so hard
To look so cool
But theres only so many girls you can fool
Your so full of yourself
It makes us all laugh
You took my whole heart

(Chorus)

You can say you knew me

You can say you loved me

You can say you thought you were above me

You can say you knew me

You can say you loved me

You can say you knew me..

You can say you loved me..

You can also say that you thought you were above me

Were above meâ€¦

(you can say you knew me,

You can say you loved me

You can say you knew meâ€¦)

It's not like I'll ever admit I dated you.
