Voices will be quiet still

I hear their echo land

Pink drinks Alice should sink

But no

Always leaving a poolroom a bar a girl

Lost for sure around needmore

Drowned then blew apart

Circle things spin and sing

Oh no

High up the stairs take a right

It's a teenage dream

Who got in a fight at the bell

Where did the home team go?

Hoping you are behind each door

We'll sing woo woo loud

Views to hills freedom cruise

Oh oh
