(Eva:)

Hello and goodbye, I just unemployed you

You can go back to school

You've had a good run, I'm sure he enjoyed you

Don't act sad or surprised, let's be friends, civilized

Come on little one, don't sit there like a dummy

The day you knew would arrive is here, you'll survive

So move, funny face

I like your conversation, you've a catchy turn of phrase

You're obviously going through some adolescent phase

(Mistress:)

So what happens now?

So what happens now?

Where am I going to?

(Peron:) You'll get by, you always have before

(Mistress:) Where am I going to?

(Eva:) Don't ask anymore
