When All Is Said and Done

I see your face today
I don't know your name
But I believe my soul's on fire
Across a crowded room
Our eyes chance to meet
And yes, I know, my soul's on fire

And I hear you call
In the middle of the night
In the middle of my fall
And I know you're the one
That I'm running to
When all is said and done

You stay for hours here
I don't even know your name
But I believe I know you well
It's how I see your eyes
And how your voice reacts
To the feelings held deep inside

And I hear you call
In the middle of the night
In the middle of my fall
And I know you're the one
That I'm running to
When all is said and done

I see your face
I sensed your grace
I sensed the magic
It's over you
I find the power
I said it's all good
I want the lust
I want the love
I want to take this time to heart

I sleep for hours lately
I don't even know your name

I only know the soul and fire
It's hard to breathe at night
It's hard to breathe at all
It might be true, and so divine

And I hear you call
In the middle of the night
In the middle of my fall
And I know you're the one
That I'm running to
When all is said and done

I see your face
I feel your grace
It's over you
I find the hour
To make it all come true
I want the lust
I want the juice
I've got the power
I'm holding out for you
