what you gonna do zimbabwae

zimbabwae is a man who tried to teach his children what was right but then there came a time when war split the family from inside he said no fighting no more

the old man sits and shakes his head while the multitudes insist where is the cause of unity with just one thought there could be peace men gathered in silence the same can there be some peace on earth can there be a love greater than the world we see greater than us all it's the last station home

it's the last station home

you ran your heart in those days when no-one could see days you want to run in the wind you want to go back inside see no more crime in your lifetime zimbabwae, zimbabwae
no more crime in your lifetime
zimbabwae, zimbabwae
