oooh.. yeah..

How fast is too fast, how slow is too slow we've been far, we don't know which way to go
We turned are backs to eachother.
How soft is too soft, how hard is to hard
It's getting late, to late for us to part
Too go from one love to another

How I tried and I tried Gave everything from all I had
If it's good then
Why does it feel so bad?
Let it slide
This love just can't be denied
Till we are satisfied

How low is too low, how high is too high
We had it all, stinging bees and butterflies
Carried our hearts
Never giving up
Without a fight until tonight

Cause we tried and we tried
Gave everything from all we had
If it's good then
Why does it feel so bad?
Let it slide
This love just can't be denied
Till we are satisfied

I want to make amends
There is hope for us and yet
This turn of events
Doesn't make any sense
It seems foolish to me
To forsake, forgive and forget

We tried and we tried
Gave everything from all we had
If it's good then

Why does it feel so bad?
Let it slide
This love just can't be denied

We tried and we tried
Gave everything from all we had
If it's good then
Why does it feel so bad?
Let it slide
This love just can't be denied
Till we are satisfied
Satisfied.
