You wan lock horns, just cause you got scorned wanna get your plot on? D got forms of warm receptions, important perceptions so foreign projections in the projects, keep me protected, cause secret objections we greet with aggression, we teach em' a lesson we breach the deception, we eat ya' for breakfast complete the suggestion, defeating oppression the weak will retreat with a weapon, if the walls will cease then I'm all for peace, that's my core belief so why would I wanna war and beef, I don't need more to eat so I don't horde the meat, the lure of the streets is sure to keep, weak motherfuckers trying ta beat motherfuckers I, seek and disrupt the frame of mind that's corrupted, skim haters of they grim nature strugglin' to get paper while they spit vapor.....

[Hook]

famous facists aiming plane crashes insane clashes, the war of the masses caskets, cremated to ashes in this disastrous, world war of the masses remain passive or aim and blast it the past is, gone it's the war of the masses

[Virt]

as we checking out of the second millenium hear the reckoning beckoning prefects are involved in religious lecturing infesting in the peoples mind, evil festering questioning they lessons and they ride on you like an equestrian, psychotic off anti-biotics and chemical bi-products the medicals try on us I promise that every word is a comet a bom for the congress, who claim to see beyond Nostradamus
you can rely on bibles if you need a guide to provide you with vital knowledge thats born inside you my haiku typhoon remind you false idols blind you, crucify and bind you why do the mass of us not see cash we lust half of us need dough but people slash they cut then pass the crust, most leave little for those after us from ass and nut to ash and dust

[Hook]

V: The mercenaries we sent to retrieve the verse of aries cursed to carry dead weight on our backs like hearsts that bury

D:Jerks immersed in the worst affairs we could describe the impact of lies on earth is scary business to witness, but Del and Virtch are very revolutionary

V: Immune to any torture tactics practice to beat the system lilke victims of an abusive family

D:Then who can we trust?

V: few if any confusion led me to abuse the henny but then the music let me see that there was better ways to use my pennies

D:using various options, choosing every concoction cause losings an illusion I foster like who is your partner, he doing the cha-cha I see through it cause I do what I got ta'

V:the fluid we author, for your mind shine lucid to oculars, and magnify the truth like binoculars
