Be That Girl

Be That Girl I know who is somewhere inside of you I was never close to the end of my time I was being who I was and following the rules so I never did anything wrong

Be that girl I know who is somewhere inside of you never feel like you don't belong have before now know that it was wrong to feel that way

Don't close your eyes and except things to fade over night your true love could happen tomorrow
you just never know

Be that girl I know somewhere inside of you don't let teh fear keep you from playing the game never let go of your faith

Don't feel like you don't belong I have before and I know now it wasn't right to feel that way just listen and you'll hear me say!

I wasn't never close to the end of my time I was never what I call perfect I was never what I thought I wanted to be all that matters is your here and I know I can be strong then once again

Be that Girl!

Don't let the fear keep you from playing the game Always hold on and Be as Strong as you can be
Be the best of you!

Be that Girl And You will make the world happy!

be that girldon't let the fear keep you from playing the game
Be that girl

ohh Yeah Be that girl forever and ever
