I love you

You know because I love you
I find it so hard not to be near you
I feel when I'm dreaming Something is trying to grab hold of me
And then I wake up and say its only a dream cause if it was real I'd get frightened and loose myself
For a long while

I feel like I'm invisible to the world today I feel like the sky would just fall on me because of how much madness I've got going on in my life

Ohhh

You know I love you
I find it so hard not to be near you
I feel when I'm dreaming
something is trying to grab me
And take me away for a life time

Then bring me back as something better but nothing is better then what I am now"

Thank god this is only a dream Wouldn't know what to do if it god real and I would feel so frightened and wanted to run away From this plant I am living on I've felt I've been to the plant of mars" I've felt like I used to be able to fly" whenever I was so down and frustrated

Oh baby

My heart gets trampled day by day but I Won't let myself go down

Without a fight cause I'm not that kinda girl

Just want to be free from the frustrations Just want to be free from the emotions

Just want to love you more each day History wouldn't be the same if it wasn't for you loving me today

You know I love you
I find it so hard not to be near you
I feel when I'm dreaming
something is trying to grab me
And take me away for a life time

but nothing is as better as what I am now" Baby.
