I used to know

I used to know deep down inside who I was
It seems as I got older I lost the plot
I've looked as if I've forgot

You know that you're the only one I can stand to be with
You know that you're the only one I can be with?

I wish you were doing less frustration
And you were more into comforting
Without your love I'd be lost in the middle of no where I use to know deep down inside who I was
It seems as I got older I lost the plot
I've looked as if I've forgot

Don't you wish you could turn a page?
To one of your Dreams Don't you wish
That emptiness inside your pain would fade ?

I used to know deep down inside who I was
It seems as I got older I lost the plot
I've looked as if I forgot

Suddenly as I got up
My world had turned to darkness
Only cause of all the stress I've caused
With me and you I wish we were through
Sometimes I can't think all I do is cry

Suddenly as I got up
My world had turned black
Only cause of all the stress I've caused
With me and you I wish we were through
Sometimes I can't think all I do is cry

I wish I was strong and I wish you knew
What I was feeling inside
I wish you'd stop what you do
Sometimes it gets a bit too much.

I used to know deep down inside who I was
It seems as I got older I lost the plot
I've looked as if I forgot
