Do I really want to know myself

Do I want to see

Why I'm wonderin' every morning, who's it gonna be today

Staring in the mirror, come tell me, who's that under my skin

And what's the reason they're here for

Tell me what is my own true face

Tell me what is my own true face

But hey here I come

I'm the show's main attraction

I'm a beautiful creature

That's what I am, yeah that's what I am

But the other side of me

I can't explain why I've become

Negative as can be

I'm wonderin' where it's coming from

I know I can't do without it, sure makes me what I am

So I will never stop believin'

In that I love myself someday

In that I love myself someday

But hey here I come

I'm the show's main attraction

I'm a beautiful creature

Yeah that's what I am, Hey that's what I am
