This beat, not for the record sales,
this beat, despite what the radio tells you,
this beat is yours and mine alone tonight,
and this beat, is made possible, retains full custody and is responsible for,
you and me and all my friends tonight

What would you say if you had, everbodies full attention, undivided somber,
silence from the crowd,
dear mother,
if I had said I'd re payed all my favors, broke even after all these years yeah, you know that its a lie,

This beat, not for the record sales,
this beat, despite what the radio tells you,
this beat is yours and mine alone tonight,
and this beat, is made possible,

Richie richie, whoa richie richie.
