The night absorbs reality
And releases fantasy
It tickles my vanity
And throws me into ecstasy
The abyss of illusion
Reveals a fairy land
I am in confusion
For I've got out of hand
The fairies of the night
Surround me, beset me
Fear is their delight
They will try to take me
The new moon salutes me
The wind whispers a word
The wicked witches embrace me
And touch me with their magic hands
And I become air
And I become fire
The enemies filled with despair
As I am getting higher and higher
I have gained the wisdom
I have honored the spell
I have conquered the stardom
I have beaten the night as well
Innocence arrives with dawn
All creatures start to hide
They leave me alone
And are eager for the night
