Performed by Aimee Mann)

Verse 1:

She's been a long time on the phone
Courting disaster in an undertone
She's feeling nostalgic and feeling that fall
How could anyone ever fight it
Who could ever expect to fight it when she
Builds that Wall

Verse 2:

Maybe it's one where time will tell
Maybe it's one where it's just fare-thee-well
I hear her coming
As she walks down the hall
How could anyone ever fight it
Who could ever expect to fight it when she
Builds that Wall

Bridge:

I know the choice is made
I can tell, I said
By your guilty face

And I never was one to fight it

How does anyone ever fight it

Verse 3:

You couldn't pin this one on me

You knew my thoughts so far as I could see

Well, I'd say it's hopeless

But you make the call

'Cause I never was one to fight it

And if given the chance I guess I'll learn to Build that wall

Ahhhhhh

Ahhhhhh Build that Wall

Ahhhhhh Build that Wall

Ahhhhhh Build that Wall

Ahhhhhh Build that Wall

Ahhhhhh Oooooooooo Build that Wall

Ahhhhhh Build That Wall
