[chorus 2x]

I know that this is tough but it's gotta be done.
I just rather see you happy, Is to move on.
I know it's gon' be hard, I know it's gon' be painful.
But when it's all said and done your gonna be thankful.

(Jon Young) We went from smiles to frowns I know
theres gone be ups and downs.
But when you down more than up it's time to throw in the towel.
Girl we hangin' on to something that no longer exists.
We miss what we had then but it's over with.
I know they say it's forever when you say you in love.
Now it's just thick through thick and then the rules are meant to be broken, in since less to drag it out but it's been way over.
We grew apart that's why we actin' so much colder.
You found another shoulder that you can lean on.
I know you say ya just friends but I ain't that dumb.
But, I ain't trippin' I just wanna see ya smile again.
And if it means breakin' up then I think we should end.
so i'ma cut you loose girl i'ma make ya verdict.
Like a bandaid quick so theres less hurtin' we gotta
move on I know it's painful
But when it's all said and done you gone be thankful.

[chorus 2x]

I know that this is tough but it's gotta be done.
I just rather see you happy, Is to move on.
I know it's gon' be hard, I know it's gon' be painful.
But when it's all said and done your gonna be thankful.

(J.Cash.)These times is hard but even harder if we stay together.
I know we had plans n thoughts to make it last forever.
but I can't stop the rain I think we need a change of weather.
never did I think that they would come but I know it's for the better.
'cause when we started all I ever saw was your dimples.
Our cheeks were hurtin' from the smilin' girl it was so simple.

But now it's up and down like a relationship is a limbo.
That's why i'm praying that God would pour a sign and stick me wit a symbol.

'Cause I need an answer Lord tell me what am I to do Because she makes me smile but I wanna have her smilin' to

And I can tell that's theres probably somebody new.
So what's the point in draggin' this out? When we probably through.

Shit this the toughest decision I ever had to make
I thought it over and over so it's in the hands of fate.
And in the end girl im knowin' that it's no mistake.
Because i'd rather see you happy even if my heart
would break.

[chorus 2x]

I know that this is tough but it's gotta be done.
I just rather see you happy, Is to move on.
I know it's gon' be hard, I know it's gon' be painful.
But when it's all said and done your gonna be thankful.
